The Bhutan Society of the United Kingdom

The Society was founded on October 6th 1992 in response to the growing connections between the two countries. The Society held its inaugural meeting in London on Bhutan National Day, December 17th 1992.

The Aims of the Bhutan Society

To encourage and promote knowledge and understanding of the Kingdom of Bhutan, its history and its culture.

To encourage cultural and educational links between the peoples of the Kingdom of Bhutan and the United Kingdom

To act as a link between all people, particularly those in the United Kingdom, who are interested in, or who have connections with, the Kingdom of Bhutan.

To promote and foster good relations between the peoples of the Kingdom of Bhutan and the United Kingdom.

Activities and benefits

A varied programme of talks are held at intervals throughout the year on topics relating to Bhutan.

Members will receive the Society's Newsletter several times during the year. An archive of past Newsletters may be found on the Society's website: www.bhutansociety.org

Opportunities are available for members to meet socially; these include an annual dinner and opportunities to offer hospitality to Bhutanese students in the UK.

The Society has set up a charitable Trust Fund to support various projects in Bhutan.
